

Prospectus Supplement No. 2 to Prospectus Dated June 7, 2023

GE HealthCare Technologies Inc.

This prospectus supplement supplements information contained in the prospectus dated June 7, 2023 (the "Prospectus"), relating to the offering shares of common stock of GE HealthCare Technologies Inc. (the "Company," "we" or "our") by the selling stockholder identified in the Prospectus. All shares of our common stock offered hereby are currently held by General Electric Company ("GE"), and such shares are registered under the terms of a stockholder and registration rights agreement between us and GE. GE HealthCare will not receive any proceeds from the sale of shares of our common stock by the selling stockholder.

This prospectus supplement should be read in conjunction with, and may not be delivered or utilized without, the Prospectus. This prospectus supplement is qualified by reference to the Prospectus, except to the extent that the information in this prospectus supplement supersedes the information contained in the Prospectus.

This prospectus supplement includes our attached Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q dated October 31, 2023.

The securities offered hereby involve risks and uncertainties. These risks are described under the caption "Risk Factors" beginning on page 22 of the Prospectus, and in "Item 1A. Risk Factors" beginning on page 18 of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2022, as the same may be updated in prospectus supplements.

Neither the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission nor any state securities commission has approved or disapproved of these securities or passed upon the adequacy or accuracy of this Prospectus. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense.

The date of this prospectus supplement is October 31, 2023.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q contains forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements might be identified by words, and variations of words, such as “will,” “expect,” “may,” “would,” “could,” “plan,” “believe,” “anticipate,” “intend,” “estimate,” “potential,” “position,” “forecast,” “target,” “guidance,” “outlook,” and similar expressions. These forward-looking statements may include, but are not limited to, statements about our business; information related to our business segment portfolios and strategies; financial performance, financial condition, and results of operations, including revenue, revenue growth, profit, taxes, earnings per share, and cash flows; the impacts of macroeconomic and market conditions and volatility on our business operations, financial results, and financial position and on supply chains and the world economy; our strategy, innovation, and investments; our cost structure; our funding and liquidity; the impacts on our business of manufacturing, sourcing, and supply chain management, the Russia and Ukraine conflict; our operations as a stand-alone company; and risks related to foreign currency exchange, interest rates, and commodity price volatility. These forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties, many of which are beyond our control. Factors that could cause our actual results to differ materially from those described in our forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, operating in highly competitive markets; the actions or inactions of third parties with whom we partner and the various collaboration, licensing, and other partnerships and alliances we have with third parties; demand for our products, services, or solutions and factors that affect that demand; management of our supply chain and our ability to cost-effectively secure the materials we need to operate our business; disruptions in our operations; changes in third-party and government reimbursement processes, rates, contractual relationships, and mix of public and private payers, including related to government shutdowns; our ability to attract and/or retain key personnel and qualified employees; global geopolitical and economic instability, including as a result of the conflict between Ukraine and Russia and the conflict in Israel and surrounding areas; the global Coronavirus Disease 2019 (“COVID-19”) pandemic and its effects on our business; maintenance and protection of our intellectual property rights; the impact of potential information technology, cybersecurity, or data security breaches; compliance with the various legal, regulatory, tax, and other laws to which we are subject, such as the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act and similar anti-corruption and anti-bribery laws globally, and related changes, claims, inquiries, investigations, or actions; our ability to control increases in healthcare costs and any subsequent effect on demand for our products, services, or solutions; the impact of potential product liability claims; environmental, social, and governance matters; our ability to successfully complete strategic transactions; our ability to operate effectively as an independent, publicly traded company and achieve the benefits we expect from our spin-off from General Electric Company; and the incurrence of substantial indebtedness in connection with the spin-off and any related effect on our business. Please also see the “Risk Factors” section of our Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission and any updates or amendments we make in future filings. There may be other factors not presently known to us or which we currently consider to be immaterial that could cause our actual results to differ materially from those projected in any forward-looking statements we make. We do not undertake any obligation to update or revise our forward-looking statements except as required by applicable law or regulation.

NOTE 1. ORGANIZATION AND BASIS OF PRESENTATION

BACKGROUND.

GE HealthCare Technologies Inc. ("GE HealthCare," the "Company," "our," or "we") is a leading global medical technology, pharmaceutical diagnostics, and digital solutions innovator. We operate at the center of the healthcare ecosystem, helping enable precision care by increasing health system capacity, enhancing productivity, digitizing healthcare delivery, and improving clinical outcomes while serving patients' demand for greater efficiency, access, and personalized medicine. Our products, services, and solutions are designed to enable clinicians to make more informed decisions quickly and efficiently, improving patient care from diagnosis to therapy to monitoring.

On January 3, 2023 (the "Distribution Date"), the General Electric Company ("GE" or "Parent") completed the previously announced spin-off of GE HealthCare Technologies Inc. (the "Spin-Off"). The Spin-Off was completed through a distribution of approximately 80.1% of the Company's outstanding common stock to holders of record of GE's common stock as of the close of business on December 16, 2022 (the "Distribution"), which resulted in the issuance of approximately 454 million shares of common stock. Prior to the Distribution, the Company issued 100 shares of common stock in exchange for $1.00, all of which were held by GE as of December 31, 2022. As a result of the Distribution, the Company became an independent public company. Our common stock is listed under the symbol "GEHC" on the Nasdaq Stock Market LLC ("Nasdaq"). As of September 30, 2023, GE's beneficial ownership was approximately 13.5% of the Company's outstanding common stock.

In connection with the Spin-Off, certain adjustments were recorded to reflect transfers from GE, the draw-down of the Term Loan Facility and settlement of Spin-Off transactions with GE, which resulted in the net reduction in Total equity of $2,840 million. These items substantially consisted of the transfer of: (1) certain pension plan liabilities and assets as described in Note 9, "Postretirement Benefit Plans," (2) certain deferred income taxes as described in Note 10, "Income Taxes," (3) deferred compensation liabilities of $548 million, and (4) employee termination obligations as described in Note 14, "Restructuring and Other Activities – Net."

In connection with the Spin-Off, the Company entered into or adopted several agreements that provide a framework for the relationship between the Company and GE. See Note 18, "Related Parties" for more information on these agreements.

Unless the context otherwise requires, references to "GE HealthCare," "we," "us," "our," and the "Company" refer to (1) GE's healthcare business prior to the Spin-Off as a carve-out business of GE with related condensed combined financial statements and (2) GE HealthCare Technologies Inc. and its subsidiaries following the Spin-Off with related condensed consolidated financial statements.

BASIS OF PRESENTATION.

The condensed consolidated and combined financial statements have been prepared in accordance with United States ("U.S.") generally accepted accounting principles ("U.S. GAAP") and present the historical results of operations and comprehensive income (loss) for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2023 and 2022, cash flows for the nine months ended September 30, 2023 and 2022, and the financial position as of September 30, 2023 and December 31, 2022. It is management's opinion that these financial statements include all normal and recurring adjustments necessary for a fair presentation of the Company's financial position and operating results. The following tables are presented in millions of U.S dollars ("USD") unless otherwise stated.

All intercompany balances and transactions within the Company have been eliminated in the condensed consolidated and combined financial statements. These financial statements include certain transactions with GE, which are disclosed as related party transactions. See Note 18, "Related Parties" for further information.

Prior to the Spin-Off, the condensed combined financial statements were derived from the consolidated financial statements and accounting records of GE including the historical cost basis of assets and liabilities comprising the Company, as well as the historical revenues, direct costs, and allocations of indirect costs attributable to the operations of the Company, using the historical accounting policies applied by GE. The condensed combined financial statements do not purport to reflect what the results of operations, comprehensive income (loss), financial position, or cash flows would have been had the Company operated as a separate, stand-alone entity prior to the Spin-Off.

The condensed consolidated and combined financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Company's audited combined financial statements and notes included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2022.

ESTIMATES AND ASSUMPTIONS.

The preparation of the condensed consolidated and combined financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates based on assumptions about current, and for some estimates, future, economic and market conditions, which affect the reported amounts and related disclosures in the condensed consolidated and combined financial statements. We base our estimates and judgments on historical experience and on various other assumptions and information that we believe to be reasonable under the circumstances. Although our estimates contemplate current and expected future conditions, as applicable, it is reasonably possible that actual conditions could differ from our expectations, which could materially affect our results of operations, financial position, and cash flows.

There have been no material impacts to our accounting estimates as of September 30, 2023 and December 31, 2022, or the results for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2023 and 2022, from the COVID-19 pandemic. The federal COVID-19 Public Health Emergency declaration in the U.S. ended in May 2023, and COVID-19 restrictions have been lifted in many locations globally.

ACCOUNTING CHANGES.

Accounting Standards Codification (“ASC”) Topic 740, Income Taxes, provides that interest and penalties related to unrecognized income tax benefits may either be classified as income tax expense or interest expense in the condensed consolidated statements of operations. In the first quarter of 2023, the Company changed its accounting policy for presentation of interest expense on uncertain tax positions. The interest was previously presented within “Interest and other financial charges – net” and has changed to being presented within “Benefit (provision) for income taxes.” The Company believes this presentation is preferable because the cost is related to income tax matters and this presentation enhances comparability with our peers. The effects of the change in accounting have been prospectively applied to periods beginning in the first quarter of 2023 and were not material to any previously reported periods prior to March 31, 2023.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements reflected in the Condensed Consolidated and Combined Financial Statements

In September 2022, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) issued Accounting Standards Update (“ASU”) No. 2022-04, Liabilities – Supplier Finance Programs (Subtopic 405-50). The ASU requires companies to disclose information about supplier finance programs, including key terms of the program, outstanding confirmed amounts as of the end of the period, a rollforward of such amounts during each annual period, and a description of where the amounts are presented. The new standard does not affect the recognition, measurement, or financial statement presentation of supplier finance obligations. The ASU is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2022, including interim periods, except for rollforward information, which is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2023. The Company adopted this guidance on January 1, 2023. See Note 17, “Supplemental Financial Information” for further information.

In October 2021, the FASB issued ASU No. 2021-08, Business Combinations (Topic 805): Accounting for Contract Assets and Contract Liabilities from Contracts with Customers. The ASU requires companies to apply the definition of a performance obligation under ASC 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers, to recognize and measure contract assets and contract liabilities relating to contracts with customers acquired in a business combination. Prior to the adoption of this ASU, an acquirer generally recognized assets acquired and liabilities assumed in a business combination, including contract assets and contract liabilities arising from revenue contracts with customers, at fair value on the acquisition date. The ASU results in the acquirer recording acquired contract assets and contract liabilities from contracts with customers on the same basis that would have been recorded by the acquiree before the acquisition under ASC 606. The ASU is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2022, with early adoption permitted. The Company adopted this guidance on January 1, 2023 using a prospective method, and the adoption did not have a material impact on the condensed consolidated financial statements.

NOTE 2. REVENUE RECOGNITION

Our revenues primarily consist of sales of products and services to customers. Products include equipment, imaging agents, software-related offerings, and upgrades. Services include contractual and stand-by preventative maintenance and corrective services, as well as related parts and labor, extended warranties, training, and other service-type offerings. The Company recognizes revenue from contracts with customers when the customer obtains control of the underlying products or services.

Contract and Other Deferred Assets

	As of
	September 30, 2023	December 31, 2022
Contract assets	$ 650	$ 584
Other deferred assets	388	405
Contract and other deferred assets	1,038	989
Non-current contract assets ⁽¹⁾	67	37
Non-current other deferred assets ⁽¹⁾	88	82
Total contract and other deferred assets	$ 1,193	$ 1,108

(1) Non-current contract and other deferred assets are recognized within All other assets in the Condensed Consolidated and Combined Statements of Financial Position.

Contract assets primarily reflect revenue recognized on contracts with customers in excess of billings based on contractual terms. Contract assets are classified as current or non-current based on the amount of time expected to lapse until the Company's right to consideration becomes unconditional. Other deferred assets consist of costs to obtain contracts, primarily commissions, other cost deferrals for shipped products, and deferred service, labor, and direct overhead costs.

CONTRACT LIABILITIES.

Contract liabilities primarily include customer advances and deposits received when orders are placed and billed in advance of completion of performance obligations. Contract liabilities are classified as current or non-current based on the periods over which remaining performance obligations are expected to be satisfied with our customers.

As of September 30, 2023 and December 31, 2022, contract liabilities were approximately $2,610 million and $2,526 million, respectively, of which the non-current portion of $683 million and $630 million, respectively, was recognized in All other liabilities in the Condensed Consolidated and Combined Statements of Financial Position. Contract liabilities increased by $84 million in 2023 primarily due to an increase in customer advances as a result of the normal annual service contract billing cycle. Revenue recognized related to the contract liabilities balance at the beginning of the year was approximately $1,357 million and $1,377 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2023 and 2022, respectively.

REMAINING PERFORMANCE OBLIGATIONS.

Remaining performance obligations represent the estimated revenue expected from customer contracts that are partially or fully unperformed inclusive of amounts deferred in contract liabilities, excluding contracts, or portions thereof, that provide the customer with the ability to cancel or terminate without incurring a substantive penalty. As of September 30, 2023, the aggregate amount of the contracted revenues allocated to our unsatisfied (or partially unsatisfied) performance obligations was $14,162 million. We expect to recognize revenue as we satisfy our remaining performance obligations as follows: a) product-related remaining performance obligations of $4,865 million of which 99% is expected to be recognized within two years, and the remaining thereafter; and b) services-related remaining performance obligations of $9,297 million of which 65% and 94% is expected to be recognized within two years and five years, respectively, and the remaining thereafter.

NOTE 3. SEGMENT INFORMATION

GE HealthCare's operations are organized and managed through four reportable segments: Imaging, Ultrasound, Patient Care Solutions ("PCS"), and Pharmaceutical Diagnostics ("PDX"). These segments have been identified based on the nature of the products sold and how the Company manages its operations. We have not aggregated any of our operating segments to form reportable segments. A description of our reportable segments has been provided in the "Business" section of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2022.

The performance of these segments is principally measured based on Total revenues and an earnings metric defined as "Segment EBIT." Segment EBIT is calculated as Income from continuing operations before income taxes in our Condensed Consolidated and Combined Statements of Income excluding the impact of the following: Interest and other financial charges – net, Non-operating benefit (income) costs, restructuring costs, acquisition and disposition related benefits (charges), gain (loss) of business and asset dispositions, spin-off and separation costs, amortization of acquisition-related intangible assets, and investment revaluation gain (loss).

As of September 30, 2023, 6%, 5%, and 5% of financing receivables were over 30 days past due, over 90 days past due, and on nonaccrual, respectively, with the majority of nonaccrual financing receivables secured by collateral. As of December 31, 2022, 7%, 6%, and 6% of financing receivables were over 30 days past due, over 90 days past due, and on nonaccrual, respectively, with the majority of nonaccrual financing receivables secured by collateral.

NOTE 6. LEASES

OPERATING LEASE LIABILITIES.

Operating lease liabilities recognized within All other current liabilities or All other liabilities in the Condensed Consolidated and Combined Statements of Financial Position were $365 million and $347 million as of September 30, 2023 and December 31, 2022, respectively. Expense related to our operating lease portfolio, primarily our long-term fixed leases, was $54 million and $47 million for the three months ended September 30, 2023 and 2022, respectively, and $167 million and $143 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2023 and 2022, respectively.

NOTE 7. ACQUISITIONS, GOODWILL, AND OTHER INTANGIBLE ASSETS

ACQUISITIONS.

On February 17, 2023, the Company acquired 100% of the stock of Caption Health, Inc. (“Caption Health”) for $127 million of upfront payment, $10 million future holdback payment, and potential earn-out payments valued at $13 million based primarily on various milestones and sales targets. The preliminary purchase price allocation resulted in goodwill of $94 million, intangible assets of $60 million, and deferred tax liabilities of $3 million. Our estimates and assumptions are subject to change within the measurement period. The goodwill associated with the acquired business is non-deductible for tax purposes and is reported in the Ultrasound segment. Caption Health is an artificial intelligence (“AI”) company whose technology expands access to AI-guided ultrasound screening for novice users.

See Note 12, “Financial Instruments and Fair Value Measurements” for further information about the fair value measurement of contingent consideration.

We assess the possibility that a reporting unit's fair value has been reduced below its carrying amount due to the occurrence of events or circumstances between annual impairment testing dates. We did not identify any reporting units that required an interim impairment test since the last annual impairment testing date.

Substantially all other intangible assets are subject to amortization. Intangible assets decreased during the nine months ended September 30, 2023, primarily as a result of amortization, partially offset by acquisitions in our Imaging and Ultrasound segments. Amortization expense was $89 million and $103 million for the three months ended September 30, 2023 and 2022, respectively, and $278 million and $307 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2023 and 2022, respectively.

NOTE 8. BORROWINGS

Senior Unsecured Notes

The Company's long-term borrowings include $8,250 million aggregate principal amount of senior unsecured notes in six series with maturity dates ranging from 2024 through 2052 (collectively, the "Notes"). Refer to the table below for further information about the Notes.

Credit Facilities

The Company has credit agreements providing for:

- a five-year senior unsecured revolving credit facility in an aggregate committed amount of $2,500 million;
- a 364-day senior unsecured revolving credit facility in an aggregate committed amount of $1,000 million; and
- a three-year senior unsecured term loan credit facility in an aggregate principal amount of $2,000 million (the "Term Loan Facility" and, together with the five-year revolving credit facility and the 364-day revolving credit facility, the "Credit Facilities").

There were no outstanding amounts under the five-year revolving credit facility and 364-day revolving credit facility as of September 30, 2023 or December 31, 2022. On January 3, 2023, the Company completed a $2,000 million drawdown of the floating rate Term Loan Facility in connection with the Spin-Off from GE.

The weighted average interest rate for the Notes and our Credit Facilities for the nine months ended September 30, 2023 was 6.01%. We had no principal debt repayments on the Notes or the Term Loan Facility for the nine months ended September 30, 2023.

LETTERS OF CREDIT, GUARANTEES, AND OTHER COMMITMENTS.

As of September 30, 2023 and December 31, 2022, the Company had unused letters of credit, bank guarantees, bid bonds, and surety bonds of approximately $724 million and $657 million, respectively, related to certain commercial contracts. Additionally, we have approximately $39 million and $43 million of guarantees as of September 30, 2023 and December 31, 2022, respectively, primarily related to residual and credit guarantees on equipment sold to third-party finance companies. Our Condensed Consolidated and Combined Statements of Financial Position reflect a liability of $4 million and $4 million as of September 30, 2023 and December 31, 2022, respectively, related to these guarantees. For credit-related guarantees, we estimate our expected credit losses related to off-balance sheet credit exposure consistent with the method used to estimate the allowance for credit losses on financial assets held at amortized cost. See Note 13, "Commitments, Guarantees, Product Warranties, and Other Loss Contingencies" for further information on guarantee arrangements with GE.

NOTE 9. POSTRETIREMENT BENEFIT PLANS

PENSION BENEFITS AND RETIREE HEALTH AND LIFE BENEFITS SPONSORED BY GE, TRANSFERRED TO GE HEALTHCARE IN CONNECTION WITH THE SPIN-OFF.

Certain GE HealthCare employees were covered under various pension and retiree health and life plans sponsored by GE prior to the Spin-Off, including principal pension plans, other pension plans, and principal retiree benefit plans. A subset of these pension plans have been closed to new participants. For the three and nine months ended September 30, 2022, relevant participation costs for these plans were allocated to the Company and recognized within the Condensed Combined Statement of Income. These included service costs for active employees in the U.S. GE Pension Plan, certain international pension plans, the U.S. GE Supplementary Pension Plan, and the U.S. retiree benefit plan. We did not record any liabilities associated with our participation in these plans in our Condensed Combined Statement of Financial Position as of December 31, 2022.

Expenses associated with our employees' participation in the U.S. GE principal pension and principal retiree benefit plans, which represent the majority of related expense, were $24 million and $73 million for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2022. Expenses associated with our employees' participation in GE's non-U.S. based pension plans were immaterial for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2022.

In connection with the Spin-Off, on January 1, 2023, these plans were separated and GE transferred certain liabilities and assets of these plans to GE HealthCare based upon measurements as of December 31, 2022. The amounts assumed by GE HealthCare on January 1, 2023, are shown in the tables below.

Accumulated Benefit Obligations and Unrecognized Gain

PENSION PLANS SPONSORED BY GE HEALTHCARE, INCLUDING THOSE TRANSFERRED BY GE.

As the pension plans were transferred by GE on January 1, 2023, there are no amounts included for these plans in the periods ended September 30, 2022. Pension plans with pension assets or obligations less than $50 million and $20 million as of September 30, 2023 and 2022, respectively, are not included in the results below.

In the third quarter of 2023, management approved an amendment to the U.S. based GE HealthCare Pension Plan whereby the benefits for all remaining active employees will be frozen effective December 31, 2024, and additional benefit enhancements were provided. As a result, we recognized a non-cash pre-tax curtailment loss of approximately $17 million as non-operating benefit costs and an increase to our pension liability of $23 million. As a result of the plan changes, we were required to remeasure the plan assets and the projected benefit obligation, these changes collectively decreased accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) by $305 million.

For the nine months ended September 30, 2023, the Company made contributions for benefit payments totaling $157 million to the pension plans and $102 million to its postretirement plans. During 2023, the Company expects to make total benefit payments of approximately $353 million to our defined benefit pension and postretirement plans for benefit payments. The Company does not have a required minimum cash pension contribution obligation for its U.S. plans in 2023. Future contributions will depend on market conditions, interest rates, and other factors.

Prior to the Spin-Off, we disclosed postretirement plans with assets or obligations that exceeded $20 million. As a result of the transferred liabilities and assets to GE HealthCare on January 1, 2023, we now present postretirement plans with assets or obligations that exceed $50 million. For the year, the Company expects to contribute approximately $11 million to postretirement plans that are no longer disclosed.

Defined Contribution Plan

As a result of the Spin-Off, GE HealthCare established a defined contribution plan for its eligible U.S. employees that was largely consistent with the plan they participated in while GE HealthCare operated as a business of GE. Expenses associated with our employees' participation in GE HealthCare's defined contribution plan in 2023 and GE's defined contribution plan in 2022 represent the employer matching contributions for GE HealthCare employees and were $28 million and $30 million for the three months ended September 30, 2023 and 2022, respectively, and $94 million and $96 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2023 and 2022, respectively.

NOTE 10. INCOME TAXES

Our effective income tax rate was 39.3% and 20.7% for the three months ended September 30, 2023 and 2022, respectively, and 31.4% and 23.0% for the nine months ended September 30, 2023 and 2022, respectively. The effective tax rate for 2023 is higher than the U.S. statutory rate primarily due to the cost of global activities, including the U.S. taxation on international operations, tax effect of foreign currency movement, withholding taxes, and state taxes. Benefit (provision) for income taxes for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2023 included $105 million of deferred tax provision associated with the Tax Matters Agreement (“TMA”) with GE including the effect of completing the 2022 GE U.S. federal tax return. In addition, Other (income) expense - net for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2023 included a $30 million benefit related to change in tax indemnities with GE also associated with the TMA and the effect of completing the 2022 GE U.S. federal tax return. For more information on the TMA, see Note 18, “Related Parties.”

The effective tax rate for the nine months ended September 30, 2022 is higher than the U.S. statutory rate primarily due to the cost of global activities, including the U.S. taxation on international operations and state taxes. The effective tax rate for the three months ended September 30, 2022 is lower than the U.S. statutory rate due to tax on foreign operations offset by the cost of global activities, including the U.S. taxation on international operations and state taxes.

The Company is currently being audited in a number of jurisdictions for tax years 2004-2022, including China, Egypt, France, Germany, Norway, the United Kingdom, and the U.S.

In the first quarter of 2023, the Company changed its accounting policy for presentation of interest expense on uncertain tax positions from within “Interest and other financial charges – net” to within “Benefit (provision) for income taxes.” See Note 1, “Organization and Basis of Presentation” for further information.

Post Spin-Off, the Company’s previously undistributed earnings of certain of our foreign subsidiaries are no longer indefinitely reinvested in non-U.S. businesses due to current U.S. funding needs. Therefore, in the first quarter of 2023, an incremental deferred tax liability of $30 million was recorded for withholding and other foreign taxes due upon future distribution of earnings. In addition, the Company is providing for withholding and other foreign taxes due upon future distribution of current period earnings.

Also, in connection with the Spin-Off, our net deferred income tax assets increased by $3,099 million primarily due to transfers from GE, including $964 million related to pension and postretirement benefits, with the remainder primarily attributable to tax attributes that were not part of the Company’s stand-alone operations, and changes to valuation on a GE HealthCare basis.

NOTE 11. ACCUMULATED OTHER COMPREHENSIVE INCOME (LOSS) – NET

Changes in Accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) (“AOCI”) by component, net of income taxes, were as follows:

- (1) The amount of foreign currency translation recognized in Other comprehensive income (loss) (“OCI”) during the nine months ended September 30, 2023 included net gains (losses) relating to net investment hedges, as further discussed in Note 12, “Financial Instruments and Fair Value Measurements.”
- (2) Includes impact of $1,972 million to Benefit plans for unrecognized gain transferred from the GE pension and other postretirement plans and $28 million to Currency translation adjustments associated with other Spin-Off related adjustments. Refer to Note 9, “Postretirement Benefit Plans” for further information on the unrecognized gain transferred from the GE pension and other postretirement plans in connection with the Spin-Off.
- (3) Reclassifications from AOCI into earnings for Benefit plans are recognized within Non-operating benefit (income) loss, while Cash flow hedges are recognized within Cost of products or Cost of services in our Condensed Consolidated and Combined Statements of Income.
- (4) Includes pre-tax impact to Benefit plans of $(305) million for the pension plan amendment and related remeasurement of plan assets and benefit obligations. Refer to Note 9, “Postretirement Benefit Plans” for further information.

NOTE 12. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS AND FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

DERIVATIVES AND HEDGING.

Our primary objective in executing and holding derivatives is to reduce the earnings and cash flow volatility associated with fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates, equity prices, and commodity prices and hedge the volatility associated with the translation of the assets and liabilities of subsidiaries with a different functional currency than USD. These hedge contracts reduce, but do not entirely eliminate, the impact of foreign currency rate, equity price, and commodity price movements. The Company does not enter into or hold derivative instruments for speculative trading purposes.

Cash Flow Hedges

The total amount in AOCI related to cash flow hedges of foreign currency-denominated forecasted transactions was a $2 million gain, net of taxes, as of September 30, 2023. We expect to reclassify $10 million of pre-tax net deferred gains associated with designated cash flow hedges to earnings in the next 12 months, contemporaneously with the earnings effects of the related forecasted transactions. Pre-tax gains (losses) reclassified from AOCI into earnings were $(5) million and $17 million, for the three months ended September 30, 2023 and 2022, respectively, and $22 million and $34 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2023 and 2022, respectively. As of September 30, 2023, the maximum length of time over which we are hedging our forecasted transactions was approximately two years.

Net Investment Hedges

The Company uses derivative instruments to hedge the currency risk associated with its net investment in foreign operations. The derivative instruments include cross-currency swaps and foreign currency forward contracts in combination with foreign currency option contracts. As of September 30, 2023, the Company had $3,093 million gross notional of derivatives consisting mainly of $2,126 million receive-fixed USD, pay-fixed Euro ("EUR") cross-currency swaps and $871 million notional Chinese renminbi-denominated foreign currency forward and options contracts. The Company entered into each of the forward contracts concurrently with two separate foreign currency option contracts for the same notional amounts and expiration dates as the forward contracts. These instruments were each designated as the hedging instruments in net investment hedging relationships in order to mitigate the foreign currency risk attributable to the translation of its net investment in certain EUR-functional and Chinese renminbi-functional subsidiaries.

Fair Value of Derivatives

(1) Other derivatives are comprised of embedded derivatives, equity contracts, and commodity derivatives.

Under the master arrangements with the respective counterparties to our derivative contracts, in certain circumstances and subject to applicable requirements, we are allowed to net settle transactions with a single net amount payable by one party to the other. However, we have elected to present the derivative assets and derivative liabilities on a gross basis on our Condensed Consolidated and Combined Statements of Financial Position and in the table above. The fair value of the derivatives contracts is recognized within All other current assets, All other assets, All other current liabilities, and All other liabilities in the Condensed Consolidated and Combined Statements of Financial Position based upon the contractual timing of settlements for these contracts.

As of September 30, 2023, the potential effect of rights of offset associated with the derivative contracts would be an offset to both assets and liabilities by $56 million.

The table below presents the pre-tax gains (losses) recognized in OCI associated with the Company's cash flow and net investment hedges.

(1) Certain deferred compensation plans whose value is derived from market-based securities values were transferred from GE as part of the Spin-Off.

Contingent Consideration

The contingent consideration liabilities as of September 30, 2023 and December 31, 2022 were recorded in connection with business acquisitions. Changes in the Level 3 fair value measurement of contingent consideration were not material during the nine months ended September 30, 2023.

Fair Value of Other Financial Instruments

The estimated fair value of long-term debt (including the current portion) as of September 30, 2023 and December 31, 2022 was $10,465 million and $8,512 million compared to a carrying value (which includes a reduction for amortized debt issuance costs and discounts) of $10,260 million and $8,241 million, respectively. The fair value of our borrowings is determined based on observable and quoted prices and spreads of comparable debt and benchmark securities and is considered Level 2 in the fair value hierarchy. See Note 8, "Borrowings" for further information.

Non-recurring Fair Value Measurements

Equity investments without readily determinable fair value as of September 30, 2023 and December 31, 2022 were $129 million and $117 million, respectively.

NOTE 13. COMMITMENTS, GUARANTEES, PRODUCT WARRANTIES, AND OTHER LOSS CONTINGENCIES

GUARANTEES.

The Company has off-balance sheet credit exposure through standby letters of credit, bank guarantees, bid bonds, and surety bonds. See Note 8, "Borrowings" for further information. In addition, prior to Spin-Off GE had provided performance guarantees in certain jurisdictions where we lacked the legal structure to issue the requisite guarantees required on certain projects.

Following the Spin-Off, which was completed pursuant to a Separation and Distribution Agreement (the "Separation and Distribution Agreement"), the Company has remaining performance guarantees on behalf of GE. Under the Separation and Distribution Agreement, GE is obligated to use reasonable best efforts to replace the Company as the guarantor or terminate all such performance guarantees. Until such termination or replacement, in the event of non-fulfillment of contractual obligations by the relevant obligors, the Company could be obligated to make payments under the applicable instruments for which GE is obligated to reimburse and indemnify the Company. As of September 30, 2023 the Company's maximum aggregate exposure, subject to GE reimbursement, is approximately $114 million.

PRODUCT WARRANTIES.

We provide warranty coverage to our customers as part of customary practices in the market to provide assurance that the products we sell comply with agreed-upon specifications. We provide estimated product warranty expenses when we sell the related products. Warranty accruals are estimates that are based on the best available information, mostly historical claims experience, therefore claims costs may differ from amounts provided. An analysis of changes in the liability for product warranties follows.

LEGAL MATTERS.

In the normal course of our business, we are involved from time to time in various arbitrations; class actions; commercial, intellectual property, and product liability litigation; government investigations; investigations by competition/antitrust authorities; and other legal, regulatory, or governmental actions, including the significant matters described below that could have a material impact on our results of operations and cash flows. In many proceedings, including the specific matters described below, it is inherently difficult to determine whether any loss is probable or even reasonably possible or to estimate the size or range of the possible loss, and accruals for legal matters are not recorded until a loss for a particular matter is considered probable and reasonably estimable. Given the nature of legal matters and the complexities involved, it is often difficult to predict and determine a meaningful estimate of loss or range of loss until we know, among other factors, the particular claims involved, the likelihood of success of our defenses to those claims, the damages or other relief sought, how discovery or other procedural considerations will affect the outcome, the settlement posture of other parties, and other factors that may have a material effect on the outcome. For such matters, unless otherwise specified, we do not believe it is possible to provide a meaningful estimate of loss at this time. Moreover, it is not uncommon for legal matters to be resolved over many years, during which time relevant developments and new information must be continuously evaluated.

Contracts with Iraqi Ministry of Health

In 2017, a number of U.S. Service members, civilians, and their families brought a complaint in the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia (the "District Court") against a number of pharmaceutical and medical device companies, including GE HealthCare and certain affiliates, alleging that the defendants violated the U.S. Anti-Terrorism Act. The complaint seeks monetary relief and alleges that the defendants provided funding for an Iraqi terrorist organization through their sales practices pursuant to pharmaceutical and medical device contracts with the Iraqi Ministry of Health. In July 2020, the District Court granted defendants' motions to dismiss and dismissed all of the plaintiffs' claims. In January 2022, a panel of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit reversed the District Court's decision. In February 2022, the defendants requested review of the decision by all of the judges on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit (the "D.C. Circuit"). In February 2023, the D.C. Circuit denied this request. Also in February 2023, defendants filed a motion for a temporary, partial stay of further district court proceedings until the Supreme Court issues its decision in a separate case, Twitter, Inc. v. Taamneh, which also involves the U.S. Anti-Terrorism Act. In March 2023, the District Court granted the motion for a temporary, partial stay. In May 2023, the Supreme Court issued its opinion in Twitter, Inc. v. Taamneh, and the stay currently remains in effect. In June 2023, defendants petitioned the Supreme Court to review the D.C. Circuit's decision. On October 2, 2023, the Supreme Court invited the Solicitor General to file a brief in this case expressing the views of the United States.

Government Disclosures

From time to time, we make self-disclosures regarding our compliance with the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act ("FCPA") and similar laws to relevant authorities who may pursue or decline to pursue enforcement proceedings against us. We, with the assistance of outside counsel, made voluntarily self-disclosures to the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and the U.S. Department of Justice ("DOJ") beginning in 2018 regarding tender irregularities and other potential violations of the FCPA relating to our activities in certain provinces in China. We have been engaged in ongoing discussions with each of the SEC and the DOJ regarding these matters. We are fully cooperating with the reviews by these agencies and have implemented, and continue to implement, enhancements to our compliance policies and practices. At this time, we are unable to predict the duration, scope, result, or related costs associated with these disclosures to the SEC and the DOJ. We also are unable to predict what, if any, action may be taken by the SEC or the DOJ or what penalties or remedial actions they may seek. Any determination that our operations or activities are not in compliance with existing laws or regulations, including applicable foreign laws, could result in the imposition of fines, penalties, disgorgement, equitable relief, or other losses.

NOTE 14. RESTRUCTURING AND OTHER ACTIVITIES – NET

Restructuring activities are essential to optimize the business operating model for GE HealthCare as a stand-alone company and mostly involve workforce reductions, organizational realignments, and revisions to our real estate footprint. Specifically, restructuring and other charges (gains) primarily include facility exit costs, employee-related termination benefits associated with workforce reductions, asset write-downs, and cease-use costs. For segment reporting, restructuring and other activities are not allocated.

As a result of committed restructuring initiatives, we recorded net expenses of $3 million and $88 million for the three months ended September 30, 2023 and 2022 and $34 million and $110 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2023 and 2022. These restructuring initiatives are expected to result in additional expenses of approximately $23 million, to be incurred primarily over the next 12 months, substantially related to employee-related termination benefits and facility exit costs. Restructuring expenses (gains) are recognized within Cost of products, Cost of services, or Selling, general, and administrative ("SG&A"), as appropriate, in the Condensed Consolidated and Combined Statements of Income.

In connection with the Spin-Off, GE transferred employee termination obligations for services already rendered of $31 million to GE HealthCare of which $5 million was remaining as of September 30, 2023. Liabilities related to restructuring are recognized within All other current liabilities and All other liabilities in the Condensed Consolidated and Combined Statements of Financial Position and totaled $70 million and $75 million as of September 30, 2023 and December 31, 2022, respectively.

NOTE 15. SHARE-BASED COMPENSATION

We grant stock options, restricted stock units ("RSU"), and performance share units ("PSU") to employees under the 2023 Long-Term Incentive Plan ("LTIP"). The Talent, Culture, and Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors approves grants under the LTIP. Under the LTIP, we are authorized to issue up to approximately 41 million shares. We record compensation expense for awards expected to vest over the vesting period. We estimate forfeitures based on experience and adjust expense to reflect actual forfeitures. When options are exercised, RSUs vest, and PSUs are earned, we issue shares from authorized unissued common stock.

Stock options provide employees the opportunity to purchase GE HealthCare shares in the future at the market price of our stock on the date the award is granted (the strike price). The options become exercisable over the vesting period, typically becoming fully vested in three to three and a half years, and expire ten years from the grant date if not exercised. RSUs provide an employee the right to shares of GE HealthCare stock when the restrictions lapse over the vesting period. Upon vesting, each RSU is converted into one share of GE HealthCare common stock. PSUs provide an employee with the right to receive shares of GE HealthCare stock based upon achievement of certain performance and market metrics. Upon vesting, each PSU earned is converted into one share of GE HealthCare common stock. We value stock options using a Black-Scholes option pricing model, RSUs using the market price on the grant date, and PSUs using the market price on the grant date and a Monte Carlo simulation as needed based on performance metrics.

The following tables provide the weighted average fair value of options, RSUs, and PSUs granted to employees during the nine months ended September 30, 2023 and the related weighted average stock option valuation assumptions used in the Black-Scholes model.

For new awards granted in 2023, the expected volatility was derived from a peer group's blended historical and implied volatility as GE HealthCare does not have sufficient historical volatility based on the expected term of the underlying options. The expected term of the stock options was determined using the simplified method. The risk-free interest rate was determined using the implied yield currently available for zero-coupon U.S. government issues with a remaining term approximating the expected life of the options. The dividend yield input was calculated using an annualized rate based on actual dividends declared.

NOTE 16. EARNINGS PER SHARE

On January 3, 2023, there were approximately 454 million shares of GE HealthCare common stock outstanding, including the interest in our outstanding shares of common stock retained by GE following the Distribution. The computation of basic and diluted earnings per common share for all periods through December 31, 2022, was calculated using this same number of common shares outstanding since no GE HealthCare equity awards were outstanding as of the Distribution Date and is net of Net (income) loss attributable to noncontrolling interest which is fully associated with continuing operations. Subsequent to the Spin-Off, the dilutive effect of outstanding stock options, RSUs, and PSUs are reflected in the denominator for diluted earnings per share using the treasury stock method.

ALL OTHER CURRENT AND NON-CURRENT ASSETS.

All other current assets primarily include prepaid expenses and deferred costs, derivative instruments, and financing receivables – net. All other non-current assets primarily include pension assets, equity method and other investments, financing receivables – net, contract and other deferred assets, inventories, and customer and sundry receivables – net. All other current and non-current assets increased in the nine months ended September 30, 2023, primarily due to assets transferred from GE as a result of the Spin-Off. Refer to Note 1, “Organization and Basis of Presentation” for further information.

ALL OTHER CURRENT AND NON-CURRENT LIABILITIES.

All other current liabilities primarily include employee compensation and benefits liabilities, sales allowances, equipment projects and other commercial liabilities, uncertain and other income tax payable, product warranties, interest payable, accrued freight and utilities, operating lease liabilities, and derivative instruments. All other non-current liabilities primarily include contract liabilities, operating lease liabilities, environmental, health and safety obligations, uncertain and other income tax payable, and derivative instruments. All other current and non-current liabilities increased in the nine months ended September 30, 2023, primarily due to liabilities transferred from GE as a result of the Spin-Off. Refer to Note 1, “Organization and Basis of Presentation” for further information.

SUPPLY CHAIN FINANCE PROGRAMS.

The Company participates in voluntary supply chain finance programs which provide participating suppliers the opportunity to sell their GE HealthCare receivables to third parties at the sole discretion of both the suppliers and the third parties. We evaluate supply chain finance programs to ensure the use of a third-party intermediary to settle our trade payables does not change the nature, existence, amount, or timing of our trade payables and does not provide the Company with any direct economic benefit. If any characteristics of the trade payables change or we receive a direct economic benefit, we reclassify the trade payables as borrowings. In connection with the supply chain finance programs, payment terms normally range from 30 to 150 days, not exceeding 180 days, depending on the underlying supplier agreements. Included in Accounts payable as of September 30, 2023 and December 31, 2022 were $396 million and $392 million, respectively, of confirmed supplier invoices that are outstanding and subject to the third-party programs.

REDEEMABLE NONCONTROLLING INTERESTS.

The Company has noncontrolling interests with redemption features. These redemption features, such as put options, could require the Company to purchase the noncontrolling interests upon the occurrence of certain events, such as a change of control of the Company. All noncontrolling interests with redemption features that are not solely within our control are recognized within the Condensed Consolidated and Combined Statements of Financial Position between liabilities and equity. Redeemable noncontrolling interests are initially recorded at the issuance date fair value. Those that are currently redeemable or probable of becoming redeemable are subsequently adjusted to the greater of current redemption value or initial carrying value. A change of control is generally not considered probable until it occurs.

Redeemable Noncontrolling Interests

	For the nine months ended September 30

Redemption value adjustments ⁽¹⁾	183	—
Distributions to and exercise of redeemable noncontrolling interests and other ⁽²⁾	(280)	(46)
Balance at end of period	$ 161	$ 198

(1) As of January 3, 2023, certain redeemable noncontrolling interests were probable of becoming redeemable due to the change of control that occurred upon consummation of the Spin-Off. These redeemable noncontrolling interests were remeasured to their current redemption value resulting in a redemption value adjustment of $183 million. The remeasurement was accounted for as a deemed preferred stock dividend of redeemable noncontrolling interest and recorded as an adjustment to retained earnings.

(2) In the first quarter of 2023, the redeemable noncontrolling interest holder exercised its option redemption provision. The redemption amount of $211 million was paid in the second quarter of 2023.

NOTE 18. RELATED PARTIES

PRIOR TO SPIN-OFF.

Prior to the Spin-Off, GE provided the Company with significant corporate infrastructure and shared services. Some of these services continue to be provided by GE to the Company on a temporary basis under the Transition Services Agreement, as discussed below. The following disclosures summarize related party activity between GE HealthCare and GE. This activity, which occurred prior to the Spin-Off, is included in the condensed combined financial statements.

Pensions, Benefit, and Contribution Plans

As discussed in Note 9, "Postretirement Benefit Plans", employees of the Company participated in pensions, benefit, and contribution plans that were sponsored by GE. The Company was charged $59 million and $182 million for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2022 related to employee participation in these plans. In connection with the Spin-Off, a portion of these plans were transferred to the Company.

Share-based Compensation

GE granted various employee benefits to its group employees, including those of the Company, under the GE Long-Term Incentive Plan. These benefits primarily included stock options and restricted stock units. Compensation expense allocated to the Company was $19 million and $58 million for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2022, respectively, and is recognized within SG&A in the Condensed Combined Statement of Income.

Corporate Overhead and Other Allocations from GE

GE provided certain services described below that were charged to the Company based on employee headcount, revenue, or other allocation methodologies.

Corporate Allocations from GE

	For the three months ended		For the nine months ended
	September 30, 2022		September 30, 2022
Costs for centralized services ⁽¹⁾	$	12	$	38
Costs associated with employee medical insurance ⁽²⁾		31		91
Costs for corporate and shared services ⁽³⁾		123		343

(1) Costs for centralized services such as public relations, treasury and cash management, and other services were recognized within SG&A in the Condensed Combined Statement of Income.

(2) Costs associated with employee medical insurance were recognized within Cost of products, Cost of services, SG&A, and R&D in the Condensed Combined Statement of Income based on the employee population.

(3) Costs for corporate and shared services such as information technology, finance and other services were primarily recognized in SG&A and R&D in the Condensed Combined Statement of Income.

Management believes that the expense and cost allocations have been determined on a basis that is a reasonable reflection of the utilization of services provided or the benefit received by the Company during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2022. The amounts that would have been, or will be incurred, on a stand-alone basis could materially differ from the amounts allocated due to economies of scale, difference in management judgment, a requirement for more or fewer employees, or other factors.

AFTER SPIN-OFF.

In connection with the Spin-Off, the Company entered into or adopted several agreements that provide a framework for the relationship between the Company and GE, including, but not limited to the following which had activity during the first nine months of 2023:

- Separation and Distribution Agreement – sets forth the principal actions to be taken in connection with the Spin-Off, including the transfer of assets and assumption of liabilities, and establishes certain rights and obligations between the Company and GE following the Distribution, including procedures with respect to claims subject to indemnification and related matters.
- Transition Services Agreement – governs all matters relating to the provision of services between the Company and GE on a transitional basis. The services the Company receives include support for digital technology, human resources, supply chain, finance, and real estate services, among others. Some of these costs were included in the Corporate allocations from GE prior to Spin-Off. The services generally commenced on the date of the Spin-Off and will terminate up to 36 months following the Distribution Date depending upon the related transitional service. For the three and nine months ended September 30, 2023, we incurred $94 million and $286 million, net, which represents fees charged from GE to the Company primarily for information technology, human resources, and R&D and is net of fees charged from the Company to GE for facilities and other shared services.
- Tax Matters Agreement – governs the respective rights, responsibilities, and obligations between the Company and GE with respect to all tax matters (excluding employee-related taxes covered under the Employee Matters Agreement), in addition to certain restrictions which generally prohibit us from taking or failing to take any action in the two-year period following the Distribution that would prevent the Distribution from qualifying as tax-free for U.S. federal income tax purposes, including limitations on our ability to pursue certain strategic transactions. The TMA specifies the portion of tax liability for which the Company will bear contractual responsibility, and the Company and GE will each agree to indemnify each other against any amounts for which such indemnified party is not responsible. See Note 10, "Income Taxes" for further information on quarter to date and year to date TMA activity.

Current amounts due from and to GE under the various agreements described above are recognized within Due from related parties or Due to related parties, as applicable, in the Condensed Consolidated and Combined Statements of Financial Position. Non-current amounts due from GE were $82 million and due to GE were $28 million, and were recognized within All other assets or All other liabilities, as applicable, in the Condensed Consolidated Statement of Financial Position as of September 30, 2023. These amounts primarily relate to tax and other indemnities.

GE HealthCare sells products and services in the ordinary course of business to certain entities associated with two members of our Board of Directors. During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2023, we recognized revenue of $26 million and $73 million, respectively, from these entities in connection with providing products and services. Current amounts due from these entities as of September 30, 2023 were not significant.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The following discussion and analysis of our financial condition and results of operations should be read in conjunction with the condensed consolidated and combined financial statements and corresponding notes included elsewhere in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q. The following discussion and analysis provides information management believes to be relevant to understanding the financial condition and results of operations of GE HealthCare Technologies Inc. ("GE HealthCare," the "Company," "our," or "we") for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2023 and 2022. For a full understanding of our financial condition and results of operations, the below discussion should be read alongside the Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2022. This discussion contains forward-looking statements that are based upon current expectations and are subject to uncertainty and changes in circumstances. Our actual results could differ materially from the results contemplated by these forward-looking statements due to a number of factors, including those discussed below and elsewhere in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, and particularly in "Item 1A. Risk Factors" in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2022. Actual results may differ materially from these expectations; see "Forward-Looking Statements."

The following tables are presented in millions of United States ("U.S.") dollars unless otherwise stated, except for per-share amounts which are presented in U.S. dollars.

Unless the context otherwise requires, references to "GE HealthCare," "we," "us," "our," and the "Company" refer to (1) General Electric Company's ("GE's") healthcare business prior to the previously announced spin-off of the Company on January 3, 2023 (the "Spin-Off") as a carve-out business of GE with related condensed combined financial statements and (2) GE HealthCare Technologies Inc. and its subsidiaries following the Spin-Off with related condensed consolidated financial statements.

GE HealthCare's operations are organized and managed through four reportable segments: Imaging, Ultrasound, Patient Care Solutions ("PCS"), and Pharmaceutical Diagnostics ("PDX") and we evaluate their operating performance using revenue and Segment EBIT.

TRENDS AND FACTORS IMPACTING OUR PERFORMANCE

We believe that our performance and future success depend on a number of factors that present significant opportunities for us but also pose risks and challenges, including those discussed below and particularly in "Item 1A. Risk Factors" in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2022.

KEY TRENDS AFFECTING RESULTS OF OPERATIONS.

Russia and Ukraine Conflict

We had $131 million and $143 million of assets in, or directly related to, these two countries as of September 30, 2023 and December 31, 2022, respectively, none of which are subject to sanctions that impact the carrying value of the assets. We generated revenues of $228 million and $241 million from customers in these two countries for the nine months ended September 30, 2023 and September 30, 2022, respectively. The potential inability to repatriate earnings from these two countries will not have a material impact on our ability to operate.

We continue to monitor the effects of Russia's invasion of Ukraine, including the consideration of financial impact, cybersecurity risks, the applicability and effect of sanctions, and the employee base in Ukraine and Russia. In May 2023, the U.S. Department of Commerce implemented expanded measures that require us to obtain a license for the export, re-export to, or transfer of specified medical equipment and spare parts to customers in Russia. The European Union and other countries have also expanded licensing requirements for certain spare parts and other items. We have applied and are applying for the licenses needed to continue supplying these customers. The implementation of these measures affected our ability to supply customers in Russia in the second and third quarters of 2023 and will continue to do so as we continue to obtain licenses. There is no guarantee we will obtain all of the licenses for which we applied, that any approvals we obtain will be on a timely basis, or that our business in Russia will not be further disrupted due to evolving legal or operational considerations. Our board of directors (the "Board"), with management, will continue to assess whether developments related to the conflict have had, or are reasonably likely to have, a material impact on the Company.

TRANSITION TO STAND-ALONE COMPANY.

Financial Presentation Under GE Ownership

GE HealthCare utilized allocations and carve-out methodologies through the date of the Spin-Off to prepare historical condensed combined financial statements. The condensed combined financial statements herein for periods prior to the Spin-Off may not be indicative of our future performance, do not necessarily include the actual expenses that would have been incurred by us, and may not reflect our results of operations, financial position, and cash flows had we been a separate, stand-alone company during the historical periods presented. For additional information, see Note 1, "Organization and Basis of Presentation" to the condensed consolidated and combined financial statements.

SUMMARY OF KEY PERFORMANCE MEASURES

Management reviews and analyzes several key performance measures including Total revenues, Remaining Performance Obligations (“RPO”), Operating income, Net income attributable to GE HealthCare, Earnings per share – continuing operations, and Cash flow from operations. Management also reviews and analyzes Organic revenue*, Adjusted Earnings Before Interest and Taxes* (“Adjusted EBIT*”), Adjusted net income*, Adjusted earnings per share*, and Free cash flow*, which are non-GAAP financial measures. These measures are reviewed and analyzed in order to evaluate our business performance, identify trends affecting our business, allocate capital, and make strategic decisions, including those discussed below. See “Results of Operations” and “Liquidity and Capital Resources” below for further discussion on our key performance measures.

The non-GAAP financial measures should be considered along with the most directly comparable U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (“U.S. GAAP”) financial measures. Definitions of these non-GAAP financial measures, a discussion of why we believe they are useful to management and investors as well as certain of their limitations, and reconciliations to their most directly comparable U.S. GAAP financial measures are provided below under “Non-GAAP Financial Measures.”

Total revenues	$ 4,822	$ 4,576	5%	$ 14,346	$ 13,403	7%

For the three months ended September 30, 2023

Total revenues were $4,822 million, growing 5% or $246 million as reported and 6% organically*. The reported growth was primarily due to Sales of products growing 6% or $174 million as reported, driven primarily by growth in Imaging, PDx, and PCS revenues.

The segment revenues were as follows:

- Imaging segment revenues were $2,635 million, growing 5% or $119 million due to growth in Molecular Imaging and Computed Tomography ("MI/CT") and Magnetic Resonance ("MR") product lines, due to supply chain fulfillment improvements, an increase in price, and new product introductions;
- Ultrasound segment revenues were $815 million, decreasing 1% or $8 million primarily due to improved fulfillment in the comparable prior year following an easing of supply chain constraints;
- PCS segment revenues were $764 million, growing 9% or $63 million due to growth in Monitoring Solutions and Consumables and Services product lines due to supply chain fulfillment improvements and an increase in price; and
- PDx segment revenues were $589 million, growing 13% or $67 million as reported with growth in EMEA and Rest of World due to an increase in price and improved demand.

The regional revenues were as follows:

- USCAN revenues were $2,075 million, growing 2% or $41 million due to growth in PCS revenues;
- EMEA revenues were $1,249 million, growing 9% or $105 million due to growth in Imaging, PDx, and PCS revenues;
- China region revenues were $719 million, growing 8% or $51 million due to growth in Imaging revenues, partially offset by unfavorable foreign currency impacts; and
- Rest of World revenues were $779 million, growing 7% or $49 million due to growth in Imaging and PDx revenues, partially offset by unfavorable foreign currency impacts.

*Non-GAAP Financial Measure

For the nine months ended September 30, 2023

Total revenues were $14,346 million, growing 7% or $943 million as reported and 9% organically*. The reported growth was primarily due to Sales of products growing 10% or $828 million as reported, with growth across all segments.

The segment revenues were as follows:

- Imaging segment revenues were $7,751 million, growing 7% or $475 million as reported due to an increase in Organic revenue*, partially offset by unfavorable foreign currency impacts. Organic revenue* grew 9% primarily due to growth in MI/CT and MR product lines, due to supply chain fulfillment improvements, stable demand in the past few quarters, new product introductions, and an increase in price;
- Ultrasound segment revenues were $2,513 million, growing 2% or $47 million as reported due to an increase in Organic revenue*, partially offset by unfavorable foreign currency impacts. Organic revenue* grew 4% primarily due to growth in Cardiovascular and Point of Care and Handheld product lines due to new product introductions and supply chain fulfillment improvements;
- PCS segment revenues were $2,315 million, growing 9% or $185 million as reported due to an increase in Organic revenue*, partially offset by unfavorable foreign currency impacts. Organic revenue* grew 10% with growth across all product lines driven by supply chain fulfillment improvements and an increase in price; and
- PDx segment revenues were $1,715 million, growing 15% or $230 million as reported due to an increase in Organic revenue*, partially offset by unfavorable foreign currency impacts. Organic revenue* grew 17%, with growth across all regions due to an increase in price and improved demand.

The regional revenues were as follows:

- USCAN revenues were $6,297 million, growing 5% or $293 million due to growth across all segment revenues;
- EMEA revenues were $3,633 million, growing 8% or $279 million due to growth in Imaging and PDx revenues, partially offset by unfavorable foreign currency impacts;
- China region revenues were $2,105 million, growing 12% or $232 million due to growth across all segment revenues, partially offset by unfavorable foreign currency impacts; and
- Rest of World revenues were $2,311 million, growing 6% or $139 million due to growth in Imaging and PDx revenues, partially offset by unfavorable foreign currency impacts.

Remaining Performance Obligations

	As of
	September 30, 2023	December 31, 2022	% change
Products	$ 4,865	$ 4,992	(3)%
Services	9,297	9,351	(1)%
Total RPO	$ 14,162	$ 14,343	(1)%

RPO represents the estimated revenue expected from customer contracts that are partially or fully unperformed inclusive of amounts deferred in contract liabilities, excluding contracts, or portions thereof, that provide the customer with the ability to cancel or terminate without incurring a substantive penalty. RPO as of September 30, 2023 decreased 1% from December 31, 2022, primarily due to strong product fulfillment driven by the U.S., China, and Europe as well as unfavorable foreign currency impacts.

*Non-GAAP Financial Measure

For the three months ended September 30, 2023

Operating income was $617 million, an increase of $12 million but a decrease of 40 basis points as a percent of Total revenues. The decrease as a percent of Total revenues was due to the following factors:

- Cost of products sold increased $81 million but decreased 100 basis points as a percent of Sales of products. The decrease as a percent of sales was driven by cost productivity and an increase in pricing of our products, partially offset by continued cost inflation. Cost of services sold increased $3 million but decreased 210 basis points as a percent of Sales of services. The decrease as a percent of sales was driven by cost productivity and an increase in pricing of our service offerings, partially offset by cost inflation. Included in our total cost of revenue as part of our product investment was $101 million in engineering costs for design follow-through on new product introductions and product lifecycle maintenance subsequent to the initial product launch, compared to $110 million for the prior year comparable period; and
- Total operating expenses increased $150 million due to an increase in Selling, general, and administrative (“SG&A”) expense of $88 million driven by increased costs associated with both the stand-up and operation as a standalone company and commercial and marketing investments and a planned increase in Research and Development (“R&D”) investments of $62 million. As a result, SG&A as a percentage of Total revenues increased by 90 basis points and R&D as a percentage of Total revenues increased by 100 basis points.

Net income attributable to GE HealthCare and Net income margin were $375 million and 7.8%, a decrease of $112 million and 280 basis points, respectively, primarily due to the following factors:

- Operating income increased $12 million, as discussed above;
- Interest and other financial charges – net increased $136 million primarily due to interest expense related to the debt securities issued by GE HealthCare in November of 2022 and the Term Loan Facility drawn upon in January of 2023;
- Non-operating benefit income, net, increased $93 million primarily related to the pension plans transferred to GE HealthCare as part of the Spin-Off; and
- Provision for income taxes increased $121 million primarily due to the tax effect of foreign currency movement, withholding taxes, and the impact of the Tax Matters Agreement (“TMA”) including the effect of completing the 2022 U.S. federal tax return. For additional detail regarding our income taxes, see Note 10, “Income Taxes” to the condensed consolidated and combined financial statements.

Adjusted EBIT* and Adjusted EBIT margin* were $744 million and 15.4%, an increase of $44 million and 10 basis points, respectively, primarily due to an increase in Total revenues, partially offset by an increase in Total operating expenses as discussed above, excluding one-time spin-off and separation costs.

Adjusted net income* was $451 million, a decrease of $95 million primarily due to higher Interest and other financial charges – net.

For the nine months ended September 30, 2023

Operating income was $1,746 million, an increase of $1 million but a decrease of 80 basis points as a percent of Total revenues. The decrease as a percent of Total revenues was due to the following factors:

- Cost of products sold increased $372 million but decreased 190 basis points as a percent of Sales of products. The decrease as a percent of sales was driven by cost productivity and an increase in pricing of our products, partially offset by continued cost inflation. Cost of services sold increased $52 million but decreased 10 basis points as a percent of Sales of services. The decrease as a percent of sales was driven by cost productivity and an increase in pricing of our service offerings, largely offset by cost inflation. Included in our total cost of revenue as part of our product investment was $321 million in engineering costs for design follow-through on new product introductions and product lifecycle maintenance subsequent to the initial product launch, compared to $324 million for the prior year comparable period; and
- Total operating expenses increased $518 million due to an increase in SG&A expense of $383 million driven by increased costs associated with both the stand-up and operation as a standalone company and commercial and marketing investments and a planned increase in R&D investments of $135 million. As a result, SG&A as a percentage of Total revenues increased by 130 basis points and R&D as a percentage of Total revenues increased by 60 basis points.

*Non-GAAP Financial Measure

Net income attributable to GE HealthCare and Net income margin were $1,165 million and 8.1%, a decrease of $197 million and 210 basis points, respectively, primarily due to the following factors:

- Operating income increased $1 million, as discussed above;
- Interest and other financial charges – net increased $393 million primarily due to interest expense related to the debt securities issued by GE HealthCare in November of 2022 and the Term Loan Facility drawn upon in January of 2023;
- Non-operating benefit income, net, increased $328 million primarily related to the pension plans transferred to GE HealthCare as part of the Spin-Off; and
- Provision for income taxes increased $138 million primarily due to the tax effect of foreign currency movement, the impact of the TMA, including the effect of completing the 2022 U.S. federal tax return, and taxes accrued for the future repatriation of current earnings with a one-time charge for prior period earnings of certain of our foreign subsidiaries. For additional detail regarding our income taxes, see Note 10, "Income Taxes" to the condensed consolidated and combined financial statements.

Adjusted EBIT* and Adjusted EBIT margin* were $2,119 million and 14.8%, an increase of $102 million but a decrease of 20 basis points, respectively, primarily due to an increase in Total revenues, offset by an increase in Total operating expenses as discussed above, excluding one-time spin-off and separation costs.

Adjusted net income* was $1,258 million, a decrease of $249 million primarily due to higher Interest and other financial charges – net, partially offset by an increase in Operating Income as discussed above, excluding the impact of one-time spin-off and separation costs.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS – SEGMENTS

We exclude from Segment EBIT certain corporate-related expenses and certain transactions or adjustments that our Chief Operating Decision Maker (which is our Chief Executive Officer) considers to be non-operational, such as Interest and other financial charges – net, Benefit (provision) for income taxes, Restructuring costs, Acquisition and disposition related benefits (charges), Spin-Off and separation costs, Non-operating benefit (income) costs, Gain (loss) of business and asset dispositions, Amortization of acquisition-related intangible assets, Net (income) loss attributable to noncontrolling interests, Income (loss) from discontinued operations, net of taxes, and Investment revaluation gain (loss). See "Results of Operations" section above for discussion on the performance of segments on revenue.

NON-GAAP FINANCIAL MEASURES

The non-GAAP financial measures presented in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q are supplemental measures of our performance and our liquidity that we believe help investors understand our financial condition, cash flows and operating results, and assess our future prospects. We believe that presenting these non-GAAP financial measures, in addition to the corresponding U.S. GAAP financial measures, are important supplemental measures that exclude non-cash or other items that may not be indicative of or related to our core operating results and the overall health of our company. We believe that these non-GAAP financial measures provide investors greater transparency to the information used by management for its operational decision-making and allow investors to see our results "through the eyes of management." We further believe that providing this information assists our investors in understanding our operating performance and the methodology used by management to evaluate and measure such performance. When read in conjunction with our U.S. GAAP results, these non-GAAP financial measures provide a baseline for analyzing trends in our underlying businesses and can be used by management as one basis for making financial, operational, and planning decisions. Finally, these measures are often used by analysts and other interested parties to evaluate companies in our industry.

The non-GAAP financial measures we report include:

Organic revenue and Organic revenue growth rate

We believe that Organic revenue and Organic revenue growth rate, by excluding the effect of acquisitions, dispositions, and foreign currency rate fluctuations, provide management and investors with additional understanding of our core, top-line operating results and greater visibility into underlying revenue trends of our established, ongoing operations. Organic revenue and Organic revenue growth rate also provide greater insight regarding the overall demand for our products and services.

Adjusted EBIT and Adjusted EBIT margin

We believe Adjusted EBIT and Adjusted EBIT margin provide management and investors with additional understanding of our business by highlighting the results from ongoing operations and the underlying profitability factors. These metrics exclude interest expense, interest income, non-operating benefit (income) costs, and tax expense, as well as non-recurring and/or non-cash items, which may have a material impact on our results. In addition, we may from time to time consider excluding other nonrecurring items to enhance comparability between periods. We believe this provides additional insight into how our businesses are performing, on a normalized basis. However, Adjusted EBIT and Adjusted EBIT margin should not be construed as inferring that our future results will be unaffected by the items for which the measure adjusts.

Adjusted net income

We believe Adjusted net income provides investors with improved comparability of underlying operating results and a further understanding and additional transparency regarding how we evaluate our business. Adjusted net income also provides management and investors with additional perspective regarding the impact of certain significant items on our earnings. Adjusted net income excludes non-operating benefit (income) costs, certain tax expense adjustments, and non-recurring and/or non-cash items, which may have a material impact on our results. In addition, we may from time to time consider excluding other nonrecurring items to enhance comparability between periods. However, Adjusted net income should not be construed as inferring that our future results will be unaffected by the items for which the measure adjusts.

Adjusted earnings per share

We believe Adjusted earnings per share provides investors with improved comparability of underlying operating results and a further understanding and additional transparency regarding how we evaluate our business. Adjusted earnings per share also provides management and investors with additional perspective regarding the impact of certain significant items on our per share earnings. Adjusted earnings per share excludes non-operating benefit (income) costs, certain tax expense adjustments, and non-recurring and/or non-cash items, which may have a material impact on our results. In addition, we may from time to time consider excluding other nonrecurring items to enhance comparability between periods. However, Adjusted earnings per share should not be construed as inferring that our future results will be unaffected by the items for which the measure adjusts.

Free cash flow

We believe that Free cash flow provides management and investors with an important measure of our ability to generate cash on a normalized basis. Free cash flow also provides insight into our flexibility to allocate capital, including reinvesting in the Company for future growth, paying down debt, paying dividends, and pursuing other opportunities that may enhance stockholder value. Free cash flow is Cash from (used for) operating activities – continuing operations including cash flows related to the additions and dispositions of property, plant and equipment (“PP&E”) and internal-use software as well as the impact of discontinued factoring programs. Interest expense associated with external debt that was historically held by GE is not recognized in the condensed combined financial statements and related notes. Additionally, Free cash flow does not represent residual cash flows available for discretionary expenditures, due to the fact the measures do not deduct the payments required for debt repayments.

Non-GAAP Reconciliations

Management recognizes that these non-GAAP financial measures have limitations, including that they may be calculated differently by other companies or may be used under different circumstances or for different purposes, thereby affecting their comparability from company to company. In order to compensate for these and the other limitations discussed below, management does not consider these measures in isolation from or as alternatives to the comparable financial measures determined in accordance with U.S. GAAP. Readers should review the reconciliations below and should not rely on any single financial measure to evaluate our business. The reconciliations of each non-GAAP financial measure to the most directly comparable U.S. GAAP financial measure are provided below.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

As of September 30, 2023, our Cash, cash equivalents, and restricted cash balance was $2,418 million. We have historically generated positive cash flows from operating activities from continuing operations. Additionally, we have access to revolving credit facilities of $3,500 million in aggregate, described in detail in Note 8, "Borrowings" to the condensed consolidated and combined financial statements. Historically, we relied on cash pooling arrangements with GE to manage liquidity and fund our operations. Upon completion of the Spin-Off, we ceased participation in GE cash pooling arrangements and our Cash, cash equivalents, and restricted cash are held and used solely for our own ongoing operations and commitments.

We believe that our existing balance of Cash, cash equivalents, and restricted cash, future cash generated from operating activities, access to capital markets, and existing credit facilities will be sufficient to meet the needs of our current and ongoing operations, pay taxes due, service our existing debt, and fund investments in our business for at least the next 12 months.

Operating Activities

Cash generated from operating activities from continuing operations was $1,051 million and $1,071 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2023 and 2022, respectively.

Cash generated from operating activities in the nine months ended September 30, 2023 included Net income from continuing operations of $1,202 million, non-cash charges for depreciation and amortization of $466 million, and a $617 million outflow from changes in assets and liabilities, primarily driven by cash paid for interest for senior unsecured notes and the Term Loan Facility, and company funded benefit payments for postretirement benefit plans.

Cash generated from operating activities in the nine months ended September 30, 2022 included Net income from continuing operations of $1,382 million, non-cash charges for depreciation and amortization of $476 million, and a $787 million outflow from changes in assets and liabilities, primarily driven by an increase in inventory, higher cash taxes paid, and an increase in contract and other deferred assets, partially offset by an increase in accounts payable.

Investing Activities

Cash used for investing activities from continuing operations was $470 million and $303 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2023 and 2022, respectively.

Cash used for investing activities in the nine months ended September 30, 2023 primarily included additions to PP&E of $293 million related primarily to new product introductions, manufacturing capacity expansion, and purchases of businesses, net of cash acquired of $147 million primarily related to Caption Health, Inc. ("Caption Health"). On February 17, 2023, we acquired Caption Health, an artificial intelligence ("AI") company whose technology expands access to AI-guided ultrasound screening for novice users.

Cash used for investing activities in the nine months ended September 30, 2022 primarily, included additions to PP&E of $233 million related primarily to new product introductions and manufacturing capacity expansion.

Financing Activities

Cash generated from financing activities from continuing operations was $422 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2023 and cash used for financing activities from continuing operations was $785 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2022.

Cash generated from financing activities in the nine months ended September 30, 2023 primarily, included $2,020 million of newly issued debt, partially offset by $1,317 million of transfers to GE, and $211 million of redemption of noncontrolling interests.

Cash used for financing activities in the nine months ended September 30, 2022 primarily, included $703 million of transfers to GE.

*Free cash flow

Free cash flow* was $759 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2023 and primarily included $1,051 million of cash generated from operating activities, partially offset by $293 million of cash used for capital expenditures.

Free cash flow* was $841 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2022 and primarily included $1,071 million of cash generated from operating activities, partially offset by $233 million of cash used for capital expenditures.

Capital Expenditures

Cash used for capital expenditures was $293 million and $233 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2023 and 2022, respectively. Capital expenditures were primarily for manufacturing capacity expansion and equipment and tooling for new and existing products.

*Non-GAAP Financial Measure

Material Cash Requirements

In the normal course of business, we enter into contracts and commitments that obligate us to make payments in the future. Information regarding our obligations under lease, debt, and purchase arrangements are provided in Note 8, "Borrowings," and Note 13, "Commitments, Guarantees, Product Warranties, and Other Loss Contingencies," to the condensed consolidated and combined financial statements contained elsewhere in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, as well as Note 7, "Leases," disclosed in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2022. Additionally, we have material cash requirements related to our pension obligations as described in Note 9, "Postretirement Benefit Plans," to the condensed consolidated and combined financial statements in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q.

Debt and Credit Facilities

As part of our capital structure, we have incurred debt. The servicing of this debt will be supported by cash flows from our operations. As of September 30, 2023, we had $10,260 million of total debt compared to $8,250 million as of December 31, 2022.

The weighted average interest rate for the Notes and our Credit Facilities for the nine months ended September 30, 2023 was 6.01%. We had no principal debt repayments on the Notes or the Term Loan Facility for the nine months ended September 30, 2023.

Our credit facilities include a five-year senior unsecured revolving facility that provides borrowings of up to $2,500 million expiring in January 2028, and a 364-day senior unsecured revolving facility that provides borrowings of up to $1,000 million expiring in January 2024.

The Credit Facilities include various customary covenants that limit, among other things, the incurrence of liens, the entry into certain fundamental change transactions by GE HealthCare, and the maximum permitted leverage ratio. As of September 30, 2023, we were in compliance with the covenant requirements, including the maximum permitted leverage ratio.

For additional details on debt and credit facilities, see Note 8, "Borrowings" to the condensed consolidated and combined financial statements.

Access to Capital and Credit Ratings

We have historically relied, via GE, on the debt capital markets to fund a significant portion of our operations. Concurrent with our Spin-Off, we accessed the capital markets and raised $10,250 million of debt by issuing $8,250 million of senior unsecured notes in November 2022, and completed a drawdown of the Term Loan Facility of $2,000 million in January 2023. In addition, we were able to arrange revolving credit facilities of $3,500 million to further support our liquidity needs. We plan to continue to rely on capital markets, and we expect to have access to credit facilities to fund operations. The cost and availability of debt financing will be influenced by our credit ratings and market conditions. Moody's Investors Service ("Moody's"), Standard and Poor's Global Ratings ("S&P"), and Fitch Ratings ("Fitch") currently issue ratings on our long-term debt. Our credit ratings as of the date of this filing are set forth in the table below.

	Moody's	S&P	Fitch
Long-term rating	Baa2	BBB	BBB
Outlook	Stable	Stable	Stable

We are disclosing our credit ratings to enhance understanding of our sources of liquidity and the effects of our ratings on our costs of funds and access to liquidity. Our ratings may be subject to a revision or withdrawal at any time by the assigning rating organization, and each rating should be evaluated independently of any other rating.

RECENTLY ISSUED ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

For a discussion of recently issued accounting standards, see Note 1, "Organization and Basis of Presentation" to the condensed consolidated and combined financial statements appearing elsewhere in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES

Our financial results are affected by the selection and application of accounting policies and methods. We have adopted accounting policies to prepare our condensed consolidated and combined financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP.

To prepare our condensed consolidated and combined financial statements in accordance with U.S. GAAP, management makes estimates and assumptions that may affect the reported amounts of our assets and liabilities, including our contingent liabilities, as of the date of our condensed consolidated and combined financial statements and the reported amounts of our revenues and expenses during the reporting periods. Our actual results may differ from these estimates. We consider estimates to be critical (1) if we are required to make assumptions about material matters that are uncertain at the time of estimation or (2) if materially different estimates could have been made or it is reasonably likely that the accounting estimate will change from period to period.

Management believes that there have been no significant changes during the nine months ended September 30, 2023 to the items that we disclosed as our critical accounting estimates in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2022.

ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

We are exposed to market risk primarily from changes in interest rates and foreign currency exchange rates, which may impact future income, cash flows, and fair value of our business. In certain situations, we may seek to reduce cash flow volatility associated with changes in interest rates and foreign currency exchange rates by entering into financial arrangements intended to provide a hedge against a portion of the risks associated with such volatility. We continue to have exposure to such risks to the extent they are not hedged. We enter into derivative financial arrangements to the extent they meet the objective described above, and we do not use derivatives for trading or speculative purposes.

See Note 12, "Financial Instruments and Fair Value Measurements" for further information about our risk exposures, our use of derivatives, and the effects of this activity on our financial statements.

ITEM 4. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Under the direction of our Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") and our Chief Financial Officer ("CFO"), we have evaluated the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures as of September 30, 2023 (as defined in Rule 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended). Based on their evaluation, our CEO and CFO concluded that, as of September 30, 2023, our disclosure controls and procedures were effective.

We relied on certain material processes and internal controls over financial reporting performed by GE prior to the Spin-Off. Following the Spin-Off, new corporate and governance functions were implemented in order to meet the regulatory requirements of a standalone public company, such as external reporting, treasury, and stock administration. There were no changes in our internal control over financial reporting during the quarter ended September 30, 2023 that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.
